

BA (Hons) Education

1. The programme will help the students to have a clear idea of the concept of Pedagogy and be more familiarize with the educational process.
2. To develop a positive attitude towards life and the teaching profession.
3. To enhance the ability of decision making in educational management.
4. It offers a better comprehension of various trends and issues of contemporary Indian education which in turn develop an improved understanding of alternative systems of education.
5. The present syllabus provides opportunities to acquaint with the national policies of curriculum.

BA (Hons) English

1. On successful completion of the Programme, the students will be accurate both in oral and written communication as they will be strong in Grammar and its usage.
2. They can express a thorough command of English and its linguistic structures.
3. They can apply critical frameworks to analyze the linguistic, cultural and historical background of texts written in English.
4. They will be familiar with the conventions of diverse textual genres including fiction, non-fiction, poetry, autobiography, biography, Journal, films, plays, editorials etc.

BA (Hons) History

1. Sound Knowledge of different Historical Periods: Papers in each semester are devoted to the study of particular Historical phase in the historical in the events along with the study of a few major works by some master Historians of that period. These not only help the students to understand a historical period better, but also reduce the load of study in the concerned area.
2. Knowledge of the Development of Historical perspective: While pursuing Honours course of studies in History it is mandatory that a student develops proper knowledge of the historical events. In this sphere also the present syllabus appears to be illuminating, as it's provides the students with standard and upto date knowledge of historical events, impact, war and history, result. The students may acquire knowledge of the historical events of the Ancient, Medieval, Modern and European history in new aspects.
3. Development of the Historical Perspectives: The current syllabus is well chosen to represent different events from different angles. They are not only meant to make the students familiar with the dominant events of different ages, but also to open out new perspectives, the student may acquire a knowledge of the changing nature of politics or kingdoms of the changing time

BA (Hons) Political Science

1. This Programme will help the students to identify the nature of government processes, the functions of political systems, the structures and roles of institutions and constitutions, the political economy of Third World countries, international relations and foreign policy, and the challenges of globalization.
2. The programme also aims to enhance students' ability to think critically, to write with clarity, to orally communicate effectively and increases their ability to make sound judgments through analytical reasoning.
3. Opportunities such as debates, mock trial and international security simulations and preparing graduates for career success are a part of the course curriculum.

BA (Hons) Sociology

1. The curriculum framework for Sociology is intended to help students understand the nature of society in which they live and acquire skills to view social reality objectively.
2. It enables through critical thinking and observation at a national and global level of institutions and social problems of inequality and development in realms of gender, environment, polity, religion, economy, kinship and culture.
3. The objective of the course is to introduce sociological concepts and theories to students and help them link these to actual life experiences.